

18. GUIDELINES FOR AGORA REPRESENTATIVES

AGORA Club International should be represented at the various events organized by the Round Table family. It is necessary to have visibility and to be immediately recognizable by the way we dress in our Agora attire, which may change from time to time.

1. Currently the attire is the lime green jacket worn with either white, or blue trousers and a personalized Agora white shirt. With our regular presence at these events, we continue to attract the attention most especially of the ladies circlers, who are our Agora tomorrow.
2. The Agora representative should have some pins and banners that can be exchanged during the events.
3. Prepare an easy short speech in the event you are asked to make a presentation. The key points to highlight are the following:-
 - Agora is a relevant club for woman from all walks of life, who would like to meet like minded people with the same spirit of 'donner et tolérer'.
 - The club is open to Ladies Circlers after the age of 45, as well as for ladies of over 42, who had not had the opportunity to be part of Ladies Circle.
 - Agora embraces diversity that enriches us all, and is today represented in 21 countries with close to 2000 members
 - Agora Club provides a platform to women wishing to explore the diversity of the cultures of our members and to enjoy the sistership both at a local level and international levels.
 - Agora has its own ISP which gives the club further credibility throughout the Round Table family.
 - Agora has carried outmissions in.....agora countries providing a better life forchildren and elderly.
 - Agora supports the charity projects of the RT family, in particular the Ladies Circle ISP
 - Agora has been very successful in supporting different charities throughout its existence, and has already to date contributed approx.. 200,000 Euro, to the various projects both on a local level as well across the agora world.
 - We are an international organisation and part of 5 clubs 1 vision. We have our international AGM, which is held in a different country each year allowing us to continue enjoying the friendships made in Ladies Circle as well as making new friendships.

- We are in 21 countries with close to 2000 members internationally

Remember to present a small gift to the LC National President hosting the event for eg. The LC AGM and the LCI board member who is representing LCI.

Remember to give a gift to your home hostess.
