- h) decisions in relation to the modification of the articles of association, the internal rule books and the resolution of the Association,
- i) any other decision in relation to the functioning of the general meeting,
- j) any other decision in relation to the internal rule books of the Association,
- k) any other decision legally reserved to the general meeting,
- l) approval of the modification of the membership- or/and capitation fees.

20.2 The Agenda of the ACI AGM shall include the items as mentioned above and/or the following items:

- a. Notice convening the Meeting.
- b. Communications, greetings and apologies.
- c. Confirmation and adoption of the Minutes from the previous ACI AGM, if necessary.
- d. Annual Activity Reports of the members of the Board of Administrators.

- e. Approval and adoption of the accounts and consideration of the following year's budget.
- f. Determination of the capitation fee.
- g. Proposals submitted by the Board of Administrators.
- h. Proposals submitted by the Full Members.
- i. Presentation and voting for hosting the next ACI conference.
- j. Presentation and Election of the members of the Board of Administrators.
- k. Annual reports of the Full and Associate Members.
- l. Incoming President's speech.
- m. Any other business.

21 The Minutes - reference article 17 of the Articles of Association of the Association

- 21.1 The ACI Secretary will take the minutes of the ACI AGM, that will be signed by the ACI President and ACI Secretary of the ACI AGM.
- 21.2 If the Board of Administrators does not receive any objection or modification concerning the minutes of the previous ACI AGM on or before 30 June, the minutes are automatically adopted. Contrarily, the objections and modifications shall be discussed during the Councillors Meeting, and then voted during the ACI AGM.

22 Voting System, Alteration to Rules and Standing Orders - reference article 17 of the Articles of Association of the Association

- 22.1 Each Full Member has two (2) votes and each Associate Member has one (1) vote.
- 22.2 If a Member can only send one Councilor, she can use all the votes, which the Member is entitled to have.
- 22.3 The members of the Board of Administrators are not entitled to vote, with the exception of the ACI President who shall have a casting vote, which reflects the opinion of the whole Board of Administrators. This vote will be used in case of an equal division of votes.
- 22.4 Voting shall normally be by show of hands (cards). However, voting shall be by secret ballot in case of the election of the members of the Board of Administrators (50%+1), the ACI ISP (50% +1) and ACI Conference venue (50%+1), or when specially requested.
- 22.5 Members shall only vote in favor or against the motion. Abstentions are not counted. All calculations are made on votes cast and not on persons present.
- 22.6 Decisions resolved at the ACI AGM shall take effect immediately after the closure of the ACI AGM.

23 Standing Orders and Alteration to Standing Orders for the ACI AGM and the Councilors' Meeting - reference article 17 and 23 of the Articles of Association of the Association

The following standing orders are applied at the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Meetings as well as at the Councilors' meeting:

- 23.1 A record shall be kept of the attendance of the members of the Board of Administrators and the voting Councilors.
- 23.2 The quorum for any ACI AGM and Councilors' Meeting shall be a number equal to 2/3 of the Members entitled to vote.
- 23.3 The Board of Administrators shall appoint two Tellers, who shall be responsible for reporting to the Chairman of the ACI AGM and Councilors' Meeting the result of all voting. The appointed Tellers will ensure that all ballot papers, when used, remain always confidential to the participants of the meetings. If there are more than two candidates or choices, the single transferable voting system ("SVT") shall be used. Under the SVT system, each Member casts a single vote and marks her ballot for the most preferred candidate and also marks back-up preferences. A vote goes to the Member's first preference if possible, but if the first preference is eliminated, instead of being thrown away, the vote is transferred to a back-up preference, with the vote being assigned to the Member's second, third, or lower choice if possible.
- 23.4 Voting on all proposals shall be by a show of hands except when a written ballot is specifically required, this in case of election of the members of the Board of Administrators, the ACI International Service Project and the selection of the venue of the ACI Conference.
- 23.5 The Board of Administrators and two delegates/representatives of each Full and Associate Member shall conduct the business of the ACI AGM and the Councilors' Meeting. Each Full Member has two (2) votes. Each Associate Member has one (1) vote. If a Full Member is only represented by one Councilor, the representative/delegate can use all the votes, which the Member is entitled to have.
- 23.6 Any Local Member attending the ACI AGM may speak on any resolution, but only the Councilors may vote.
- 23.7 In the event of any equal division of votes, the ACI President shall have a casting vote.
- 23.8 The following procedure shall be followed when dealing with resolutions:
 - 23.8.1 Any resolution may be discussed by the Councilors' Meeting before it is voted on.
 - 23.8.2 At this stage, any Councilor, subject to the approval of the Chairman, may propose an amendment.
 - 23.8.3 When an amendment has been proposed, it must be voted on and must be settled before any other amendment can be considered. To accept the amendment, at least 75% of the members of the ACI Council present must vote in favour. .
 - 23.8.4 If the voting is against the amendment, then it is lost, and the Chairman will then ask for any other amendments. If there are no more amendments, the original proposal will then be voted upon in accordance with the rules governing the ACI AGM and Councilors' Meetings.
 - 23.8.5 If the voting is for the amendment, it is therefore carried and becomes the amended motion (=a new proposal), to which any further amendments can be proposed and dealt with as in (23.8.2) and (23.8.3) above.

23.8.6 The final amended motion then becomes the substantive motion (the new (last) proposal) and as such must be voted on, in accordance with the rules governing the ACI AGM and Councilors' Meetings.

23.8.7 If the voting is against the substantive motion (last proposal), it means that the whole proposal is lost.

23.9 The Chairman's ruling on any point of order shall be final.

23.10 These Standing Orders can only be suspended or altered when not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Members entitled to vote are present and 75% of the Councilors present at the ACI AGM vote in favor.

24 The Board of Administrators - reference article 18 of the Articles of Association of the Association

24.1 All applications for a position in the Board of Administrators need the prior consent of the candidate and the approval of the general meeting of the candidate's Full Member country.

24.2 The applications of the candidates for the offices of ACI Vice President, ACI Treasurer and ACI Secretary shall be received by the ACI Secretary on or before 30 June, and shall be sent by her to all Members on or before 31 July.

24.3 No Full Member shall nominate the same candidate for two international functions at the same ACI AGM.

24.4 When there are no candidates for office, nominations from the floor can only be accepted with the consent of the candidate and the support of her own National Board.

24.5 Applications for a position in the Board of Administrators are open to all candidates being active members in their respective National Association of a Full Member.

24.6 The candidates have to fulfil the conditions fixed in the Articles of Association and/or the Internal Rule Book.

24.7 The permission for candidature does not depend on former membership in the (inter)national board of Ladies' Circle.

25 The Resignation of a member of the Board of Administrators - reference article 18 of the Articles of Association of the Association

25.1 If an administrator is at any time unable to fulfil her duties of office, a new administrator will be designated at the discretion of the current Board of Administrators.

25.2 The administrator who resigned or who discontinued her mandate, during her years of office on the ACI Board of administrators, cannot be eligible to be re-elected on the ACI Board of administrators (unless she has a valid reason to resign, such as severe illness), nor can she be part of the ACI council. Therefore she can no longer be elected as a National Vice-President, National President and as consequence become Immediate Past President of her Full Member country.

25.3 Any member of the Board of Administrators who resigns from the Board of Administrators during her year of office, shall be obliged, at the discretion of the Board of Administrators, to reimburse the Association, all monies utilized for fulfilling her duties during her term of office, unless special circumstances.
